11/10/2019 – 01/07/2020 - Cloth as Community: Hmong Textiles in America

Recurring daily. West Wyandotte Library, 1737 N 82nd Street, Kansas City, KS 66112, (913) 295-8250 Price: Free. Web: <https://kckpl.librarymarket.com/cloth-community-hmong-textiles-america>.

Hmong flower cloth (or paj ntaub) is one of the world’s great textile traditions and an excellent example of cloth as community. Despite its deep roots in Hmong culture, this complex art was not widely known outside Asia until after the Vietnam War, when Hmong refugees arrive in the United States. The works illustrate the profound relevance of textiles as infrastructure in the Hmong culture, an art form that shifted as it adapted to fit new realities. Now visitors to Kansas City, Kansas Public Library can experience the exhibition, Cloth as Community: Hmong Textiles in America, opening November 10, 2019 at West Wyandotte Library. The exhibition features 27 textiles—flower cloths and embroidered story clothes—by those in the Hmong community. The library will host an opening reception on November 16 at 2:00 pm featuring Geraldine Craig of Kansas State University, who currently provides curatorial updates for the exhibit. Following Craig’s presentation, a documentary will be shown.

12-2-2019 – 02-21-2020 - Music Was My First Love" Exhibit at the Wyandotte County Museum

Recurring weekly on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday. Wyandotte County Museum, 631 N 126th, Bonner Springs, KS 66012, (913) 573-5002. Time: 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM. Price: Free. www.wycomuseum.org. The Lupe M. González Orchestra was a popular Kansas City, Kansas dance orchestra heard far and wide in various towns and cities in the Midwest. The music they played reflected Mexican musical standards, and the popular swing and show music of the day-- often with a Latin flavor. This exhibit documents the Lupe M. González story through photographs, newspaper articles, and musical memorabilia. The exhibit’s themes focus on Lupe’s strong family and musical origins; his own musical development; the “life and times” of the Lupe M. González Orchestra, and Lupe’s contributions to the community.

BPU Warns Customers of Telephone Scams Targeting Customers

The Kansas City Board of Public Utilities (BPU) is warning customers about phone scams targeting electricity customers regarding their utility bills.

The latest scam involves telephone callers claiming to be from a utility company and then using various techniques to defraud customers. Some threaten customers with disconnecting electric service to their home or business if they do not make a payment immediately.

In some instances, the caller requests that the customer purchase a money gram or a prepaid credit card and the caller gives out a return number for customers to call back.

Some of the scammers are using software that fraudulently mimics a utility company's phone number that appears on the Caller ID.

"We've had numerous reports from customers who have been contacted by these methods. Any customers who receive such a call should refrain from providing any personal or banking information, hang up and should instead contact the BPU Customer Service Department," stated David Mehlhaff, BPU Chief Communications Officer.

BPU customer service representatives are reassuring customers that this is a scam and warning them to not give out any personal information to these scam artists. The BPU Customer Service Department can be reached by calling 913-573-9190.

Mehlhaff added some other important safety tips to keep in mind:

Never give credit card, debit card, Social Security, ATM, checking or savings account numbers to anyone who comes to your home, calls, texts and/or sends an email requesting this information in respect to your utility bill, without verifying that person is with BPU by either asking to see company identification or by calling BPU's Customer Service Department.

Be suspicious if you receive an email regarding your utility bill if you have not requested online communications from BPU. For customers using BPU's online bill pay system, always make online payments directly through bpu.com. Never provide personal information via email or click on any suspicious links.
